

One More Dance

Yonatan Razel & Shulem Lemmer

(A)

I remember the sky Jerusalem morning
Suddenly silence broken
A distant voice an ancient prayer
Children climbing narrow stairways

Hearts were singing, lips were praying
Beneath us, the ground was shaking
How can we dance? How can we sing?
The golden sky above us burning

(B)

We dream of better days
We know that they will come
We will dance again

(C)

One more dance
We're praying for one more dance
A dance that will never end
Together as one heart higher and higher

One more song
We're praying for one more song
A melody from high above
We'll sing and rejoice forever and ever

Time has passed the world so different
We saw angels lived with miracles
We feel your presence in every step
Return to us we are ready now

(B)

We dream of better days
We know that they will come
We will dance again

(C)

One more dance
We're praying for one more dance
A dance that will never end
Together as one heart higher and higher

One more song
We're praying for one more song
A melody from high above
We'll sing and rejoice forever and ever
