

My Little Town

Abie Rotenberg & Shulem Lemmer

(A)

There were six hundred people
 In my little town
 When they came on that cold winter day
 I remember the crying, the running,
 The smoke, and the boxcars that took us away
 We held on to each other
 And spoke words of hope
 Hiding the terror inside
 There were six hundred people in my little town
 But I, only I, would survive

(B)

I can still smell the fresh morning bread
 That I'd buy for Mama each day
 Henyak, the baker, would first pinch my cheek
 Then hand me a keichel and say
 Mach a Brocha mein kindt, we owe it to Him.
 He made our world so very sweet
 And wherever life leads you, never forget
 Siz Gut - tzu zayn a Yid

(C)

Mutek and I were two of a kind
 Like brothers the very best of friends
 Playing all day in the streets of the Shtetl
 Growing from boys into men
 We would carry water to all of the shops
 For only five groschen a pail
 But first, we'd learn Torah in our little shul,
 An hour or two without fail

I'll never forget when the Shidduch was redt
 Papa came home with the news
 Mutek to my sister, Roizah, in no time
 The match was approved
 Blessed by the Heilige Rebbe himself
 A date for the wedding was set
 And whoever I met for the next week or two
 Said to me, soon you'll be next

(E)

The tables were set, Henyak baked the Sweets
 Shneiderman finished the gown
 Laughter and joy could be felt in the air
 With music heard all through the town

(G)

What a radiant bride, my dear Roizah was
 The groom looking handsome and strong
 And after his shoe came down on the glass
 The townsfolk all burst out in song

(H)

And there face to face, in joyous embrace, in
 The center of the crowd
 Mutek and I danced into the night, round
 And round, round and round..

(I)

There were six hundred people in my little Town - but I, only I, would survive
